FILMMAKING COMPETITION

All Rise is running its 3rd international filmmaking competition for 10-21 year olds. An opportunity for all young people to stand up and express against this modern plague - CYBER ABUSE.

The brief for the films this year will be;

IS CYBER ABUSE AN INTERNATIONAL CRIME?

The competition will be divided into two age groups;

10-15 year olds

16-21 year olds

Films should be no longer than 3 minutes

They can be any style; drama, documentary, animations, graphics - your expression... your choice!

Winners will be announced and screened on Safer Internet Day:

February 6th 2018

Please send all entries to:

contact@allrisestaynotocyberabuse.com

The judging panel will consist of industry professionals across various fields including, film, law, research and education. There will be various prizes worth over £2000!

Entry is FREE and each film gains thousands of views via social media throughout the year. For last year's films you can go to www.allrisestaynotocyberabuse.com/film-competition

This is an awesome opportunity to use the hugely powerful medium of film to expand awareness of this epidemic, so, let's All Rise and Say No To Cyber Abuse together!

Entries close
23rd of January 2018

Last year's prizes included:

- 2 x tickets to the BAFTAs
- All expenses paid trip to the film set of Robin Hood in Paris
- Work experience at Twickenham Studios
- Guided tour and lunch at Twickenham Studios
- John Lewis vouchers
- ...and much more!
